EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 2020 - 37

AN ORDER SUPPORTING AND ADOPTING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 5-E OF THE PROVINCE OF CEBU, WHICH PROHIBITS THE ENTRY OF DOMESTIC PASSENGERS ARRIVING IN CEBU VIA AIR TRAVEL AND DOMESTIC, AND PROVIDING ADDITIONAL MEASURES IN RELATION THERETO

WHEREAS, the Cebu Governor Gwendolyn Garcia issued Executive Order No. 5-E, which prohibits the entry of domestic passengers arriving in Cebu via air travel and domestic airports, as a preventive measure against the spread of COVID-19;

WHEREAS, as of today, there are already 111 confirmed COVID-19 cases in the Philippines, with 8 fatalities;

WHEREAS, in view of the limited COVID-19 testing kits amid the increasing number of COVID-19 cases, there is a need for all local government units to further intensify their efforts against the spread of the disease to protect the general welfare of its constituents;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JUNARD "AHONG" Q. CHAN, Mayor of the City of Lapu-Lapu, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby supports and adopts the implementation of Executive Order No. 5-E of the Province of Cebu and further orders the following measures:

1. Effective immediately, all domestic passengers arriving in Cebu and originating from Dumaguete City shall be denied entry in the City of Lapu-Lapu;

2. Effective immediately, all domestic passengers arriving in Mactan Cebu International Airport and originating from Clark International Airport, Legazpi City, and Cagayan de Oro City shall be denied entry in the City of Lapu-Lapu;

3. Effective 12:01 AM of March 17, 2020, all domestic passengers arriving in Mactan Cebu International Airport and originating from all other domestic airports shall be denied entry in City of Lapu-Lapu;

4. Effective 12:01 AM of March 18, 2020, all inbound passengers from any international airport and arriving at Mactan Cebu International Airport, and who are residents of Lapu-Lapu City, holders of working visas in any establishment operating in the city, or tourists guests with confirmed booking in any hotel or resort in Lapu-Lapu City, shall automatically be considered as persons under monitoring. Thus, such persons shall be required to undergo a mandatory 14-day quarantine at their own cost.

5. Public officials, military, navy, air force, police, and health personnel of official business as well as air and sea ambulances, and rescue helicopters shall be exempted from the application of this Executive Order.

6. The Lapu-Lapu City Police Office is hereby directed to set up check points in all points of entry (i.e. all seaports, airport, and bridges) into Lapu-Lapu City, and take appropriate measures against persons, who refuse to cooperate with this Executive Order.

SO ORDERED.

Issued this 15th day of March 2020 in the City of Lapu-Lapu, Philippines.
